

Devil Riddles 1-5

1. I wear horns upon my head and carry a pitchfork too,
In tales of old I tempt the bold — who am I to you?

Answer: _____

2. I burn below where sinners go, with flames that never tire,
A place of heat beneath your feet. What am I?

Answer: _____

3. I sit upon your shoulder whispering things you shouldn't do,
A tiny tempter, red and sly. What am I to you?

Answer: _____

4. I'm signed in blood by candlelight, a bargain dark and grim,
You trade your soul for earthly gold. What am I?

Answer: _____

5. I'm the crossroads where you meet a stranger late at night,
He offers fame but knows your name. What is this?

Answer: _____

Devil Riddles 6-10

6. I dance in flames but feel no pain, my tail swings left and right,
With pointed ears I've lived for years. What am I?

Answer: _____

7. I'm the fiddle played in Georgia, golden as the sun,
The prize at stake in a musical break. What am I?

Answer: _____

8. I have three prongs and stand up tall, a weapon from below,
I poke and prod the wicked sod. What am I?

Answer: _____

9. I'm the number that they fear, repeated three times round,
A beastly mark left in the dark. What am I?

Answer: _____
